Cancellation conditions + cancellation fees

1. If a reservation request for a sleeping place in a managed Alpine Club hut is made and confirmed by the hut tenant or provided in the case of short-term bookings, an accommodation contract has been concluded. A legally binding contract is also concluded in the case of verbal bookings, in particular by telephone, unless the written form has been expressly agreed.

2. If, after reservation in accordance with point 1, some or all of the sleeping places reserved by the guest are not taken up, the following cancellation fees per person and night shall be due in the event of cancellation or non-arrival of the guest:

Cancellation from 5 days before the start of the stay: € 15 per person and night Cancellation from 3 days before the start of the stay: € 20 per person and night No-show fee: € 25 per person and night

If cancellation fees are incurred at the time of cancellation, the cancellation amount will be automatically deducted from the credit card on file.

Please also note that the system's calculation time is always 6 pm.

The following only applies to huts of the German Alpine Club: Cancellation fees for minors € 5 per person and night.

For persons who do not have to pay accommodation fees, no deposit will be charged and no cancellation fee will be charged. From a group size of 5 persons, 20% of the group can be cancelled free of charge until 9 pm on the evening before arrival. The above deadline is calculated from the date of receipt of the guest's cancellation (written, verbal) by the hut tenant.

3. Cancellation free of charge is generally possible if it can be proven that access to the hut or the journey to the starting point is not possible due to force majeure (e.g. mudslide). The hut hosts must be informed immediately in the event of cancellation!

4. All decisions regarding tours, routes, weather and avalanche conditions etc. are the responsibility of the guest. Liability on the part of the hut managers for damage of any kind is excluded.
